

Dear Parents and Carers,

Another school term has flown by and we are on the countdown to the Christmas holidays.

In recent weeks many events have taken place involving the school, including fundraising for Children in Need, visits to the Judges Lodgings and Lancashire Archives, involvement in the village Christmas Tree switch on, theatre trip, sporting opportunities and so much more. We thank all those involved in planning and running these wonderful enrichment activities.

We are sure you would want to join the Governors in congratulating all the children and staff at Forton Primary School for the hard work and commitment to ensure the school really does 'SHINE'.

As Governors, we are here to support the school, work as a 'critical friend' and help make decisions about the strategic development of the whole school. We are all very proud to be a part of such a wonderful school.

And so, all it remains to say is enjoy the holiday season that is upon us, and we wish you and your family a very happy and healthy New Year!

Peter Taylor (Chair of Governors)
Ruth Ross (Vice Chair of Governors)
