Yellow Hoodies on Friday!

It has long been a tradition at Forton School for the children and staff to wear their yellow hoodie on a Friday. The reason for this is that we try to be more active and slightly more 'fit' on a Friday. This term we are starting the morning with a 'Wake up and Shake up'!

The addition advantage of all the children having their yellow hoodie is that we all wear them when we are out and about on trips. This way we are all more visible and we can keep an eye on your children more easily and your children can spot a teacher more easily too!
