

Forton's Fundamental Facts – Science

Topic – Living Things						Spring 1 – Pendle (Year 5 & 6)
Enquiry – How do humans change during their lifetime?						Key Vocabulary
						Fertilise	In animals – when the male sperm reaches the female egg. In plants – when the male pollen reaches the female ovule.
Stages of human growth						Cutting	A piece cut from a plant and used to grow another plant of the same type.
						Metamorphosis	A major change from one form to another in the life cycle of some animals when they change from young to an adult.
Life cycle of an insect			Reproduction in plants			Runner	A long stem of plant that grows along the ground in order to put down roots in a new place.
			Asexual		Sexual		Sexual reproduction	Both the male and the female are needed.
							Asexual reproduction	Only one parent is needed. This occurs mostly in plants and bacteria.